F. COMMUNICATION

1. Superintendent's Report
Mrs. Ellis discussed Covid-19 related updates. A vaccination clinic will be held in the Seeley School gym on November 30, 2021.
A mask mandate has returned to California beginning Wednesday, December 15th, through January 15th.

As of now, Seeley resident metrics consist of 7 active cases with a total of 269 cases. A total of 254 people have fully recovered.

ELPAC testing will begin in February of 2022. We currently have 196 EL students to assess in the spring. One student will be taking the alternative ELPAC, which is going through field operations. These will be taking place in-person.

CAASPP testing will begin in March 2022 for all 3-8th graders. ELA and math assessments will be taken. 5th and 8th grade will take the CAST- Science assessment. Our current Independent Study students will start.

Tomorrow will be our Winter Luncheon for staff and the Board. It will be held in the cafeteria beginning at 1:30 p.m.

2. Principal's Report

Mr. Aguilera mentioned that the school had celebrated November Student of the Month and was available for everyone to watch in Class Dojo.

Teachers are continuing their professional development in writing with ICOE and will begin a second round after Winter Break.

The PTO will be putting on another Light Parade through Seeley on Thursday, December 16th beginning at 5:30 p.m.
